U.S. Campaign Partners

Our U.S. partners stand at the forefront of a movement to ensure that women and girls everywhere have access to health, education, economic opportunity, and freedom. They are committed to putting the power of media to work for women and girls in the U.S. and around the world.

CARE
Founded in 1945, CARE is a leading humanitarian organization fighting global poverty. CARE places special focus on working alongside poor women and girls because, equipped with the proper resources, they have the power to help whole families and entire communities escape poverty. Women and girls are at the heart of CARE’s efforts to improve education, health, and economic opportunity. Visit CARE.org

Centre for Development and Population Activities (CEDPA)
Internationally recognized for improving the lives of women and girls in developing countries since 1975, The Centre for Development and Population Activities (CEDPA) works through local partnerships to give women tools to improve their lives, families, and communities. CEDPA’s programs increase educational opportunities for girls, ensure access to lifesaving reproductive health and HIV/AIDS information and services, and strengthen good governance and women’s leadership in their nations. With a growing network of more than 5,300 alumni and partners in over 150 countries, many CEDPA alumni have gone on to become top leaders in their nations, including a Kenyan health minister, minister of women’s affairs in Afghanistan, Ugandan vice president, and numerous parliamentarians. Futures Without Violence
Futures Without Violence works to end violence against women and children around the world, because every person has the right to live free of violence. Instrumental in developing the landmark Violence Against Women Act (first passed by Congress in 1994), and working to pass the International Violence Against Women Act, FWV has been breaking new ground, reaching broad audiences including men and youth, promoting leadership within communities to ensure that violence prevention efforts become self-sustaining, and transforming the way health care providers, police, judges, employers, and others respond to violence. The Geena Davis Institute on Gender in Media
Founded in 2004, The Geena Davis Institute on Gender in Media is the only organization working within the entertainment community to develop effective solutions to improve media images for girls and reduce gender stereotyping in all aspects of entertainment that targets children. The Institute conducts research, education, and advocacy to engage, and sensitize the entertainment industry and the public about the impact of gender representation in media. Visit seejane.org
GIRL SCOUTS OF THE USA
Founded in 1912, Girl Scouts of the USA is the preeminent leadership development organization for girls with 3.3 million girl and adult members worldwide. Girl Scouts is the leading authority on girls' healthy development, and builds girls of courage, confidence, and character who make the world a better place. The organization serves girls from every corner of the United States and its territories. Girl Scouts of the USA also serves American girls and their classmates attending American or international schools overseas in 90 countries. Visit girlscouts.org

HALF THE SKY MOVEMENT
Half the Sky Movement lays out an urgent agenda on behalf of the world's women—and against the shocking abuses they routinely endure: sex trafficking and forced prostitution; gender-based violence, including honor killings and mass rape; and maternal mortality, which needlessly claims one woman every 90 seconds. A major transmedia initiative that includes a 4-hour television series, a Facebook game, mobile games, a robust website, and educational modules designed specifically for more than 54 partner NGOs, Half the Sky Movement joins a burgeoning worldwide movement that aims to unlock women's power and potential, and transform them into agents of change. INTERNATIONAL RESCUE COMMITTEE
The International Rescue Committee responds to the world's worst humanitarian crises and helps people to survive and rebuild their lives. Founded in 1933 at the request of Albert Einstein, the IRC offers lifesaving care and life-changing assistance to refugees forced to flee from war or disaster. At work today in more than 40 countries and in 22 U.S. cities, the IRC restores safety, dignity, and hope to millions who are uprooted and struggling to endure. The IRC leads the way from harm to home. Visit rescue.org

MUSLIMA: MUSLIM WOMEN’S ART & VOICES
Muslima is a global online exhibition from the International Museum of Women (IMOW). Muslima presents a groundbreaking collection of thought pieces and artwork from contemporary Muslim women who are defining their own identities and, in the process, shattering pervasive stereotypes. Explore work from artists, activists, and thought-leaders around the world, representing a broad spectrum of Muslim realities and identities, addressing such topics as power, leadership, appearance, myths, generations, faith and connection. POINTS OF LIGHT INSTITUTE
Points of Light Institute inspires, equips, and mobilizes people to take action that changes the world. The organization has a global focus to redefine volunteerism and civic engagement for the 21st century, helping people use their time, talent, voices, and money to drive community problem solving. We are organized to innovate, incubate, and activate new ideas that help people act upon their power to make a difference. Points of Light Institute operates two dynamic business units that share our mission: the HandsOn Network and the Civic Incubator. Visit pointsoflight.org

WOMEN FOR WOMEN INTERNATIONAL
Women for Women International works with socially excluded women in eight countries where war and conflict have devastated lives and communities. Each woman we serve has her own story - some of loved ones murdered, and others of physical and emotional trauma. Most have endured a struggle for survival. When we enroll women in our one-year program, they learn job skills and receive business training so they can earn a living. They come to understand their rights and how to fight for those rights in their homes, their communities, and their nations, and they become leaders. WOMEN’S WORLD BANKING
Women’s World Banking is a leading global network of 39 microfinance providers and banks, working in 27 countries to bring financial products and services to low-income entrepreneurs, especially women. WWB works with these institutions to design financial products and services that fulfill women’s needs while demonstrating the sustainability and social impact of serving women. The network serves over 24 million microentrepreneurs, 82 percent of whom are women. Visit womensworldbanking.org

WORLD VISION
World Vision is a Christian humanitarian organization dedicated to working with children, families, and their communities worldwide to reach their full potential by tackling the causes of poverty and injustice. Recognizing women and girls as critical partners in development, World Vision works to equip, protect, and advocate for women in nearly 100 countries. Our programs help women and girls access health care, recover or protect themselves from exploitation, become educated and literate, access microloans and other economic opportunities, and gain influence in their community to promote positive change.
